

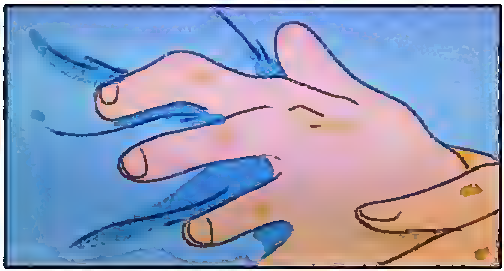
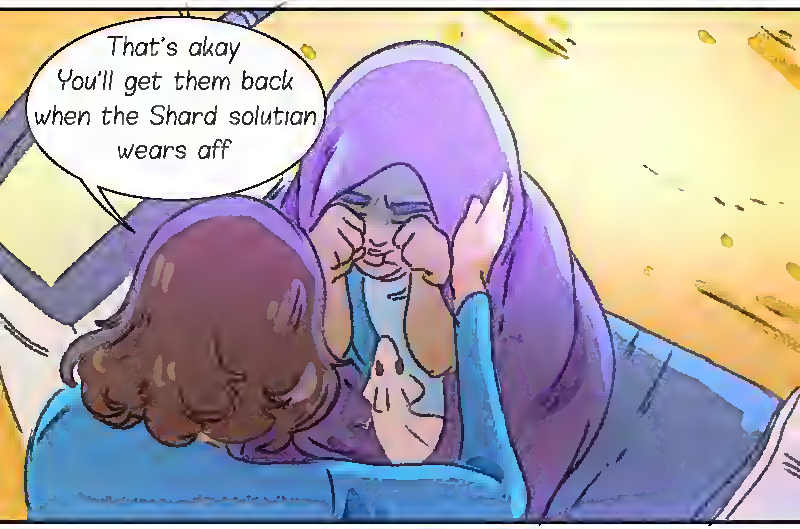
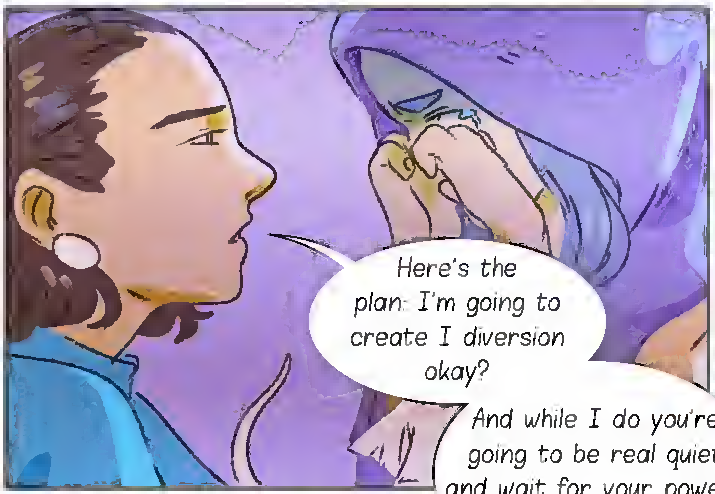
Astrid, we need to go
There are more people coming We need to be ready as much as we can before they get here



Can you use your powers?

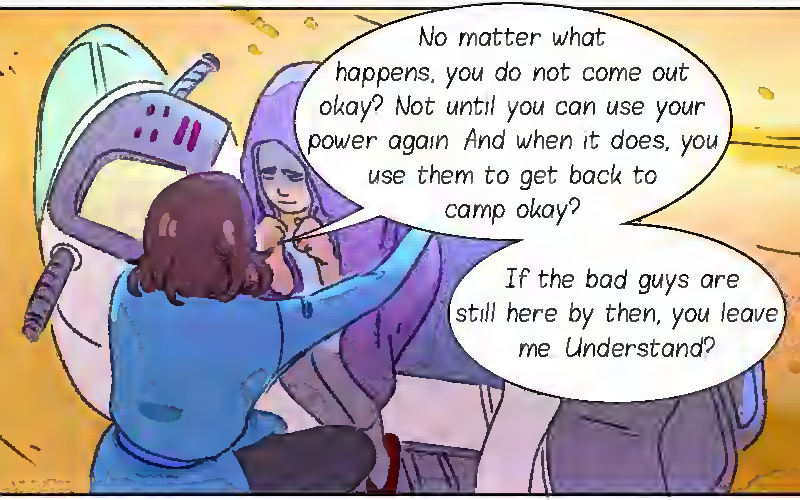


That's okay
You'll get them back when the Shard solution wears off

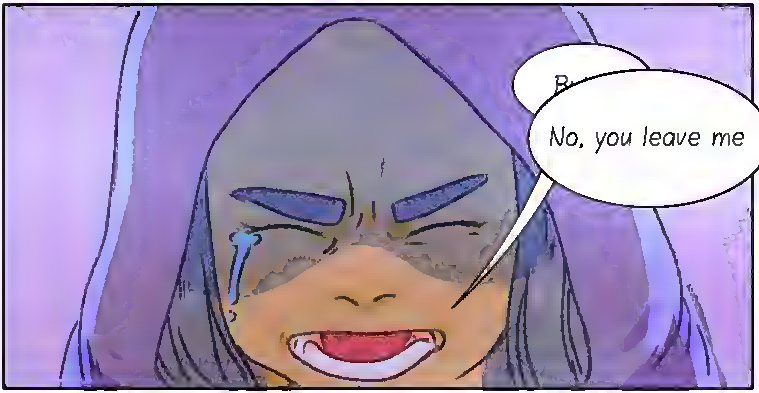


Here's the plan: I'm going to create I diversion okay?
And while I do you're going to be real quiet and wait for your powers to come back.

This part's important. Okay, Astrid?



No matter what happens, you do not come out okay? Not until you can use your power again. And when it does, you use them to get back to camp okay?
If the bad guys are still here by then, you leave me. Understand?



No, you leave me

We can't let them have you, Astrid We can't take that chance
I know it's hard, but you have to be strong Astrid Everyone needs you I'm so sorry it has to be this way, but it's the best way

B-but y-you'll die. Just l-like—

Maybe, but I'll try my very best not to, okay?

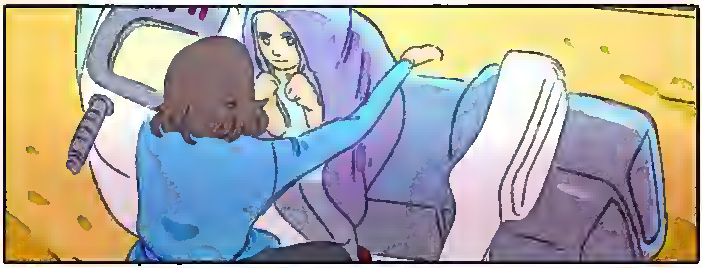
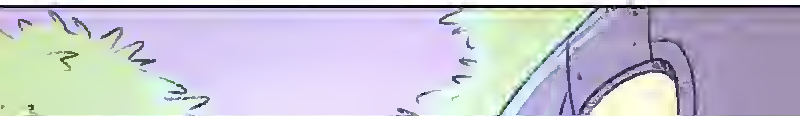
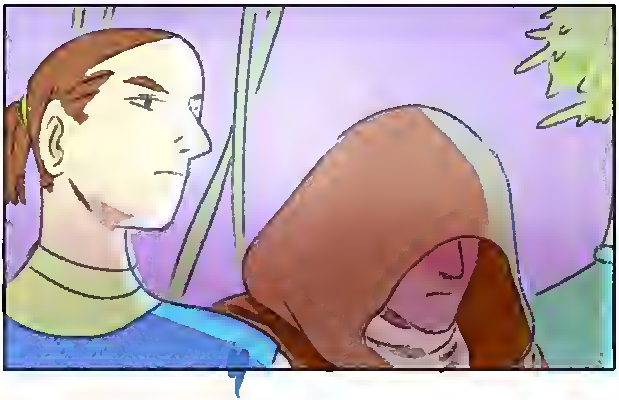
Good. Here's what we're going to do

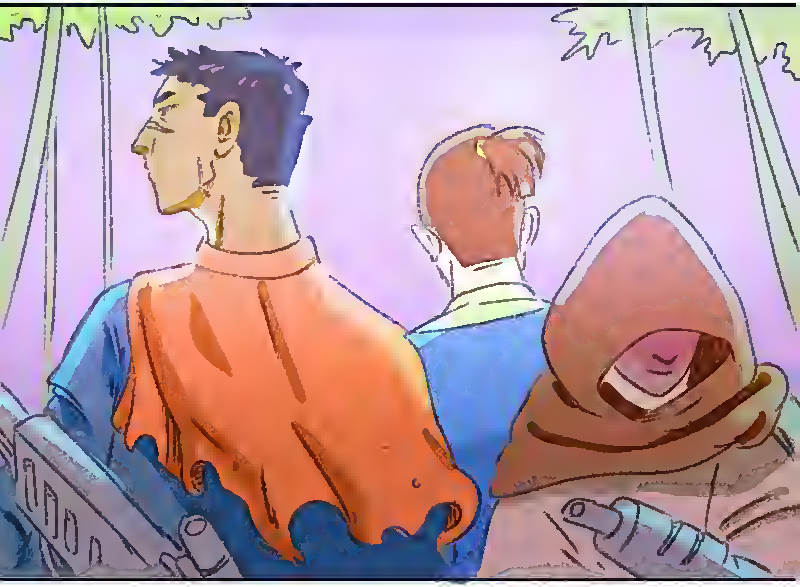


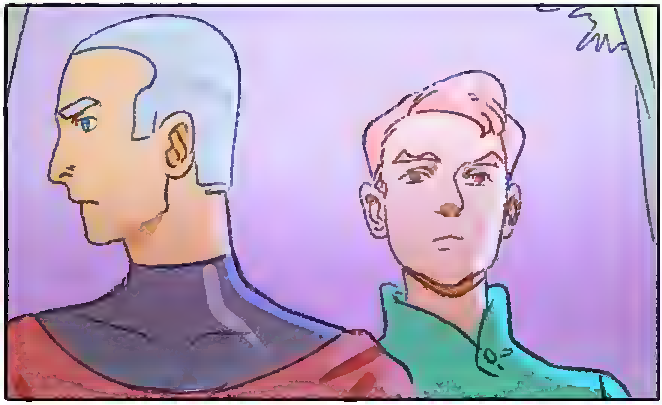


They're here somewhere

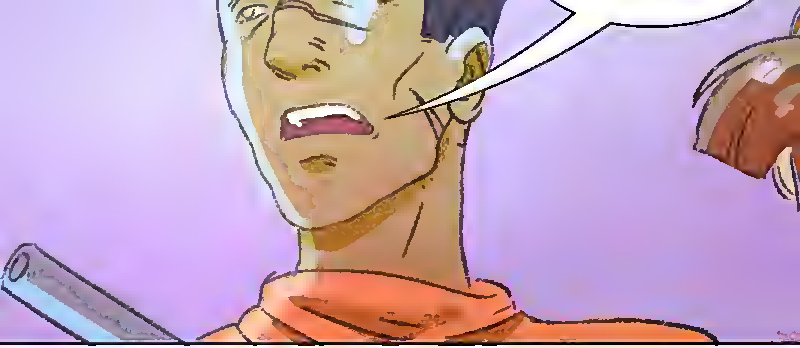
Ray, Trel, Ramos, with me
Mora, Nard Stay and guard the Sandlion

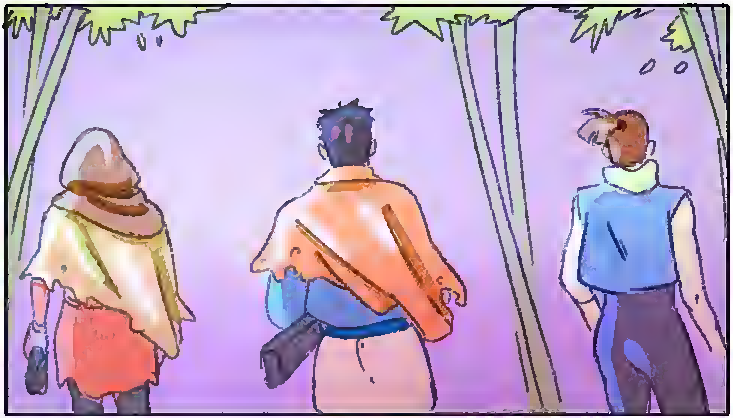


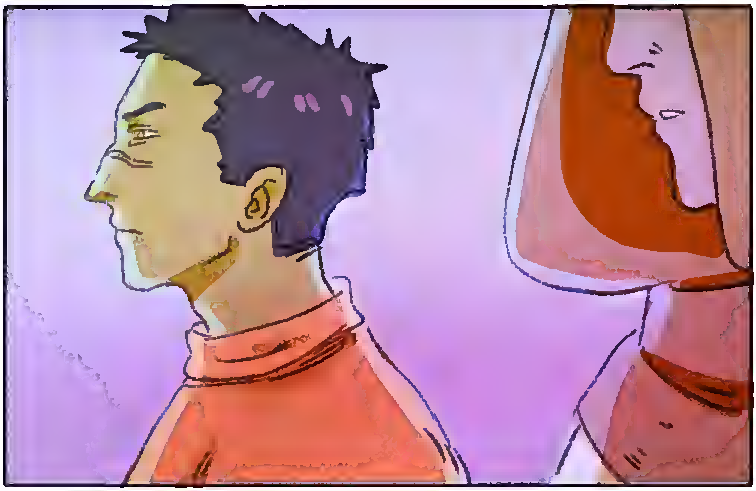




There!

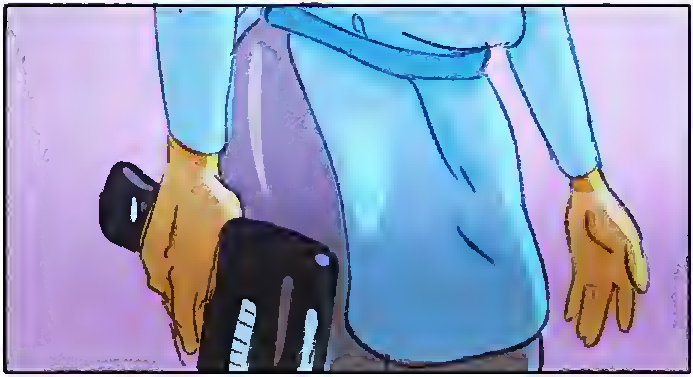


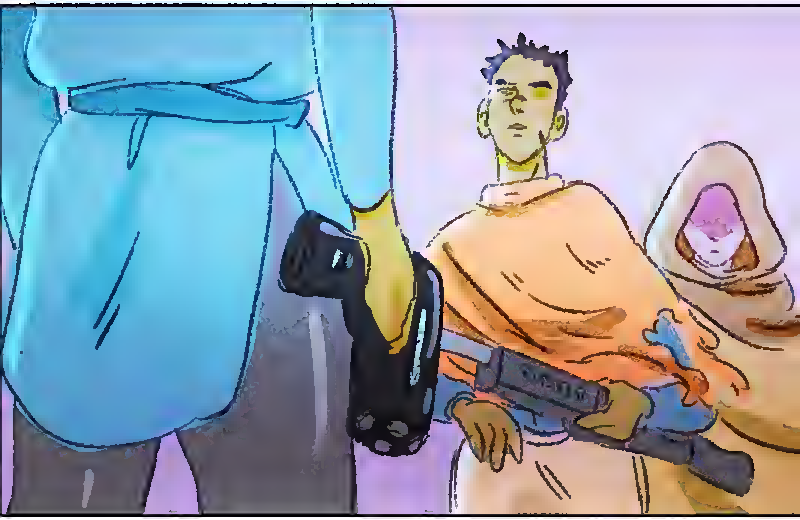




You're not getting her

Look, just give us the girl and we'll let you go





Go @#$! yourself.

Hi guys!

To start off, we're so sorry for the missed update the other week as well as how we didn't explain anything about it. We've been really swamped with work and with this comic so in all the panic, we (and by that I mean me, the writer,) forgot. Anyway, we've been reading most of your comments and we're so glad that even with the wonky updates, you guys still love this comic as much as we do. Thank you for all your support with this, we really appreciate it.The writer doesn't have anything else to write down so instead here's fan art (Is it really fan art if you wrote the story, but someone else drew it? Or is the artist's art the fan art? I don't know. You decide.) he drew of Nate and Carter. Speaking of fan art, the Traveler tumblr blog will be up soon and if you guys have any fan art you'd like to share, please don't hesitate to share it with us there when it's up!

Thanks for reading!
